

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	ix

I. INTRODUCTION

1	Conceptualising Security Sector Reform and Reconstruction Heiner Hänggi	3
---	---	---

II. SECURITY SECTOR REFORM

2	Security Sector Reform in the Euro-Atlantic Region: Unfinished Business David Law	21
---	--	----

3	Learning from Security Sector Reform in Central and Eastern Europe Chris Donnelly	45
---	--	----

4	Security Sector Reform as an Instrument of Sub-Regional Transformation in West Africa Adedeleji Ebo	65
---	--	----

5	Security Sector Reform in the Arab Middle East: A Nascent Debate Arnold Luethold	93
---	---	----

III. SECURITY SECTOR RECONSTRUCTION

6	Security Sector Reform and Post-Conflict Reconstruction under International Auspices Michael Brzoska and Andreas Heinemann-Grüder	121
---	--	-----

7	Security Sector Reform and Post-Conflict Stabilisation: The Case of the Western Balkans Marina Caparini	143
8	Governing Insecurity in Post-Conflict States: The Case of Sierra Leone and Liberia J. 'Kayode Fayemi	179
9	Consolidating an Elusive Peace: Security Sector Reform in Afghanistan Mark Sedra	207
10	Iraq's Special Challenge: Security Sector Reform 'Under Fire' Walter B. Slocombe	231

IV. CONCLUSIONS

11	Understanding Security Sector Reform and Reconstruction Alan Bryden	259
----	---	-----

List of Contributors	277
About DCAF	279