

Table of Contents

Introduction Matthias Basedau and Andreas Mehler	5
General Regional Aspects
Conceptualising the “Resource Curse” in Sub-Saharan Africa: Affected Areas and Transmission Channels Matthias Basedau and Jann Lay	9
Oil in Sub-Saharan Africa Lutz Neumann	25
The Resource Curse at Work: A Cross-Country Perspective with a Focus on Africa Jann Lay and Toman Omar Mahmoud	45
Country Cases
From Liberation Struggle to Proxy War, and from Warlordism to a Victor's Peace: The Role of Resources in Angolan Politics Sabine Fandrych	73
All that Glitters is not Diamond: The Politics of Diamond Dependence and Abundance in Botswana Gladys Mokhawa	105
Petroleum Revenues and Political Development in the Congo Republic: The Democratic Experiment and Beyond John F. Clark	121
Democratic Republic of Congo: Shadow Economies in the “Heart of Darkness” Dominic Johnson and Christiane Kayser	145
Neo-“Petro-monialism” and the Rentier State in Gabon Douglas A. Yates	173
The Niger Delta Region - A Strategic Conflict Analysis of Conflicts Around Oil Ulf Engel	191

São Tomé e Príncipe: The Difficult Transition from International Aid Recipient to Oil-Producer Gerhard Seibert	223
Salone's Sorrow: The Ominous Legacy of Diamonds in Sierra Leone J. Andrew Grant	251
Prevention and Cooperation
A Glass Half Full or Half Empty? Water, Conflict and Cooperation in Southern Africa Volker Böge	273
“Conflict Diamonds” to “Clean Diamonds”: The Development of the Kimberley Process Certification Scheme Wolf-Christian Paes	305
Conclusions
Resource Politics in Sub-Saharan Africa beyond the Resource Curse: Towards a Future Research Agenda Matthias Basedau	325
Appendices	349
About the Authors	353