

Table of Contents

Matthew P. Berg / Maria Mesner, Preface.	7
Matthew P. Berg / Robert Knight / Maria Mesner, Introduction.	9
I. Transnational Experiences	23
G. Daniel Cohen, “‘Who is a Refugee?’ Managing Displacement in the Aftermath of World War Two.”	25
David A. Messenger, “Exporting Republicanism: The French Government’s Defense of Political Prisoners in Franco’s Spain after France’s Liberation.”	37
II. Reflections on Third Reich Successor Societies	59
Matthew Paul Berg, “Excluding, Rehabilitating, and Re-Integrating Former Nazis in Vienna: A Social Democratic Dilemma, 1945-48.”	61
Christoph Jahr, “Fighting Antisemitism—Democratizing Society? Reflections on Germany’s Rocky Path Towards a Civil Society After the Second World War.”	89
Valerie Hébert, “The Politics of Punishment: War Criminals and the Struggle for German Reintegration with the West, 1948-1958.”	109
Sonja Niederacher and Stefan Lütgenau, “The Dorotheum as a Case Study of Austria after Fascism: Narratives of Opfermythos and Wiederaufbau after 1945.”	131
Alexandra Staub, “‘Einmal im Leben:’ Rooting the ‘Little Man’ to Conservative Values in Postwar West Germany.”	153
Sabine Manke, “Between Igniting and Sustaining Democracy: Staging Brandt and the No-Confidence Vote 1972 in Letters to the German Chancellor.”	179
III. Selected European Case Studies After Fascism	203
Molly Tambor, “‘An Essential Way of Life’: Women’s Citizenship and the Renewal of Politics in Italy.”	205
Béla Rásky, “Intellectual Considerations or Taciturn Eloquence about the Past? The Democratizations of Hungary 1945-1990.”	221
Isabella Matauschek, “Private Occupations: Inter-generational Dialogue on the German Occupation in Denmark and the Netherlands.”	237
Abbreviations.	255
Contributors.	259