

Table of Contents

Abbreviations	XI
Global Risks – An Introduction Jana Hertwig, Sylvia Maus, Almut Meyer zu Schwabedissen, and Matthias Schuler	1
A. Global Risks: Identification and Assessment
Climate Change and the Transformation of Security – Political Consequences of the Emerging Discourse on Capitol Hill Jörn Richert	11
Global Proliferation of Bilateral and Regional Trade Agreements: A Threat for the World Trade Organization and/or for Developing Countries? Anke Dahrendorf	39
Building a Better World? Assessing the European Union's Military Operations in Africa Christian Burckhardt	67
Global Risks: Identification, Assessment and Management Kinka Gerke-Unger and Solveig Richter	87
B. Normative Reflections to Enhance Existing Modes of Governance
The Relevance of the 1951 Refugee Convention for the Protection of Individuals Forced to Flee Armed Conflicts Vanessa Holzer	95
Corporate International Criminal Responsibility: Oxymoron or an Effective Tool for 21st Century Governance? Joris Larik	119
Democracy in the WTO – The Limits of the Legitimacy Debate Nicolas Lamp	143
Normative Reflections to Enhance Existing Modes of Governance – Comment Alexander Brand and Tina Roeder	173

C. Alternative Modes of Governance – Examples from Different Policy Fields

The Exit Option in the Treaty of Lisbon: More Harm than Good? Susanne Lechner	183
Challenging the Conventional Banking System: Does Islamic Banking Provide More Financial Stability? Ewa Karwowski	201
Risking War to Take a Chance on Peace? The Risk Paradox of Self-Perpetual Violence Carolin Görzig	221
Alternative Modes of Governance – A Critical Appraisal Regina Heller and Cornelia Manger-Nestler	241
Notes on Contributors	247
Index	253