

Table of Contents

1	Introduction	07
2	Global Environmental Governance	15
2.1	Fragmented Global Governance: Towards an Analytical Approach	15
2.2	The Architecture of Global Environmental Governance	19
3	The UNCCD in the Context of Global Environmental Governance	29
3.1	The UNCCD Mandate: Combating Desertification, Land Degradation and Drought (DLDD)	29
3.1.1	Definitions and Affected Areas	29
3.1.2	Causal Patterns and Consequences of DLDD	34
3.2	Institutional Structure and Procedures of the Convention	38
3.3	Policies and Partnerships to Combat DLDD	43
4	Linking Land and Soil to Climate Change	57
4.1	How is Climate Change Related to Land, Ground and Soil?	57
4.1.1	Biophysical Correlations	57
4.1.2	Social, Political and Economic Correlations	63
4.1.3	Mapping the Linkages: The Case of Biofuels	79

4.2	Understanding Synergies and Conflicts: Ecosystem-based Approaches to Land, Soil and Climate Change.....	95
4.2.1	Ecosystem Services and Environmental Policy Integration.....	95
4.2.2	Ecosystem Economics.....	116
5	Conclusion and Policy Recommendations.....	121
6	Annex.....	125
	References.....	125
	List of Figures and Tables.....	161
	Interview Transcript.....	162