

Contents

Figures.....	xiii
Abbreviations.....	xiii
Introduction	1
1. Background and Purpose	2
2. Hypotheses and Research Questions	5
3. Review of Literature	6
4. Research Design and Outline.....	11
4.1. Theoretical and Methodological Approach.....	11
4.2. Outline	14
4.3. Challenges	15
5. Limitations	15
6. Sources	17
Chapter I Theoretical and Methodological Framework.....	19
1. Terminological and Theoretical Foundations.....	19
1.1. Language: Theoretical Background	19
1.1.1. Assumptions and Theories around Word Meaning	21
1.1.2. Reference Theories	26
1.1.3. How to Explain Meaning	28
1.1.3.1. Semantic Components and Dimensions.....	31
1.1.3.2. Semantic Relations, Semantic Fields and Frame Semantics....	33
1.1.3.3. Techniques of Semantic Visualization.....	36
1.1.4. How to Explain Semantic Change	39
1.2. Peace as an Organizational Concept	42
1.2.1. Semantic Dimensions of UN Peace	46
1.2.2. The UN Concept of Peace and Organizational Practice.....	49
1.3. The United Nations as an Object of Research	56
2. Interpretive Approach	58
2.1. State of the Art in Studying Language in Pragmatic Contexts	59
2.1.1. The Dynamic Interpretation in International Law	61
2.1.2. Conceptual History	66
2.2. A Pragmatic-Institutional Approach to UN Peace.....	68
2.2.1. Interpretive Contexts.....	69
2.2.2. Methodological Framework.....	70
3. Challenges for the Interpretation	74

Chapter II The Concept of Peace from a Historical Perspective	77
1. Introduction.....	77
2. General Observations on the Concept of Peace in the UN Charter.....	83
3. Semantic Components of Peace.....	84
3.1. The Political Dimension of Peace	85
3.1.1. Peace and Threats to Peace.....	87
3.1.2. Peace and Security	90
3.2. Peace as Normative Order.....	94
3.3. The Functional Dimension of Peace	101
3.3.1. Strategies and Tools for the Maintenance of Peace.....	102
3.3.2. Actors and Roles	113
3.3.2.1. The Security Council: Policeman with a Club.....	115
3.3.2.2. The General Assembly: Forum for Discussion and Negotiation.....	117
3.3.2.3. The Secretary-General: Peace-Mediator	119
3.4. Further Semantic Aspects of Peace.....	121
3.5. Conclusion: UN Peace – Une Paix Armée	122
Chapter III The Concept of Peace in the Light of UN Practice	125
1. Framework of Analysis.....	125
2. Peace in the Light of The Security Council's Practice.....	128
2.1. Methodological Preliminaries	128
2.2. General Remarks on the Council's Peace Practice	133
2.3. Semantic Dimensions of the Concept of Peace.....	136
2.3.1. The Political Dimension of Peace.....	136
2.3.2. The Normative Dimension of Peace.....	148
2.3.3. The Functional Dimension of Peace.....	161
2.3.3.1. Embracing a Broader Approach to Peace and Security	162
2.3.3.2. The Council as Chief Executive of UN Peace Policy?	175
2.4. Other Semantic Aspects of Peace.....	179
2.5. Conclusion: Towards a Responsibility to Protect the Normative Foundations of Peace.....	180
3. The General Assembly and Peace	184
3.1. Introduction	184
3.2. The Assembly's Peace-policy Over Time.....	187

3.3. Semantic Dimensions of Peace	193
3.3.1. The Political Dimension of Peace.....	193
3.3.2. The Normative Dimension of Peace.....	200
3.3.3. The Functional Dimension of Peace.....	213
3.3.3.1. Approaches to the Maintenance of Peace	213
3.3.3.2. The Assembly as Standard-Setting Body and Opinion-making Forum	226
3.4. Other Semantic Relations.....	232
3.5. Conclusion: Towards a Culture of Peace	234
4. The Secretary-General, the Secretariat and Peace.....	236
4.1. Introduction	236
4.2. The Peace-related Practice of the Secretaries-General	241
4.3. Semantic Dimensions of the Concept of Peace.....	252
4.3.1. The Political Dimension of Peace.....	252
4.3.2. The Normative Dimension of Peace.....	257
4.3.3. The Functional Dimension of Peace.....	270
4.3.3.1. Strategies and Tools to Promote Peace in the World.....	271
4.3.3.2. The Secretary General: Peace-Consultant and Manager.....	283
4.4. Other Semantic Aspects of Peace.....	289
4.5. Conclusion: UN Peace – Towards a Life in Larger Freedom.....	291
Chapter IV Conclusion.....	294
1. Summary: Key Insights into the Dynamics of the UN Concept of Peace	294
1.1. The UN Concept of Peace as an Organizational Frame.....	295
1.2. General Developments Regarding the UN Concept of Peace.....	296
1.2.1. The Political Dimension of Peace: New Challenges and Threats to International Peace and Security	296
1.2.2. New Normative Foundations for a World Peace Order	300
1.2.3. Towards a new Framework for the Maintenance of Peace	304
1.2.4. Other Semantic Aspects of Peace	308
1.3. Key Aspects of Conceptual Change.....	311
1.3.1. Concretization and Increasing Complexity of Peace.....	312
1.3.2. Conceptual Expansion	313
1.3.3. Shifting Priorities of UN Peace	314

2. Implications of the Conceptual Evolution	315
2.1. Peace at the UN: One Common Understanding or Competing Concepts?	315
2.2. Language as Indicator and Factor of Organizational Change.....	317
2.2.1. Organizational Concepts as Indicators of Organizational Change.....	318
2.2.2. The Concept of Peace as a Factor of Social Change	321
3. Final Assessment and Prospects: Towards Global Peace?.....	322
Bibliography.....	327