

Table of contents

Introduction: What science can contribute to political controversy.....	7
Andrzej Szeptycki
Independent Ukraine.....	19
Maciej Wapiński
The Orange Revolution and its Aftermath.....	43
Igor Lyubashenko
Euromaidan: From the students' protest to mass uprising	61
Adam Balcer
Borders within Borderland: The ethnic and cultural diversity of Ukraine.....	87
Paweł Kowal
Oligarchy, Tyranny and Revolutions in Ukraine 1991–2014.....	119
Inge Christensen
Nationalism, Party Politics and Political Transition: Batkivshchyna and UDAR.....	137
Adrian Mandzy
Nationalism and the Ideological Identities of Svoboda and Right Sector	157
Igor Torbakov
“This Is a Strife of Slavs among Themselves”: Understanding Russian-Ukrainian Relations as the Conflict of Contested Identities.....	183
Nedim Useinov
Crimea: from annexation to annexation, or how history has come full circle	207
Natalia Shapovalova
The role of Crimea in Ukraine - Russia relations.....	227

Spasimir Domaradzki The role of NATO and the EU in the Ukrainian Crisis	267
Maria Przełomiec Poland on the Euromaidan	299
Thomas Sparrow From Maidan to Moscow: Washington's response to the crisis in Ukraine.....	321
Klaus Bachmann, Igor Lyubashenko The Role of Digital Communication Tools in Mass Mobilisation, Information and Propaganda.....	349
Ireneusz C. Kamiński International Law Aspects of the Situation in Ukraine	379
Klaus Bachmann The Challenges: Political and Economic Transition	405
Summary and conclusions	443
Iryna Havdiak, Artur Inderike Timeline.....	455
Bibliography	493
List of geographic names.....	509
Authors	519